

Space Clearing Pip Waller

I'm just back from a most amazing trip to Bali with my sister Lucy Harmer. Wow! It's a fabulous country, with a living shamanic/Hindu tradition. My sister Lucy is a great guide, as you would expect. I had the good fortune to meet with and study a little with Lucy's teacher Nyoman Jiwa, a Balinese Shaman. Lucy has studied with him for 11 years. He gave me an initiation to do Space Clearing and healing which, incidentally, he has empowered Lucy to do for her students of space clearing. A living tradition, 5000 years long. they certainly understand about energy in Bali.

I don't know if it was that, but when I came home the first thing I had to do was space clear the house - the energy felt very low to me. I think the experiences in Bali have made me much more sensitive to energy - not just with the Healer, but the clean-ness of it everywhere - and I don't mean physical cleanliness, which is as varied as it is here!

I also bought a special Priest Bell used for clearing old energy and healing places and people, directly from the maker. The bells are beautiful - and all made in a tiny workshop with hardly any equipment. The sound is incredible - and apparently, so pure that a machine can pick up their vibrations 24 hours after they are rung.

We visited some temples, made offerings, saw so much beauty. The Balinese people are wonderfully friendly and warm, no fire problems there! also they adore children, so my 2 year old was a big hit, which made things even better. What a contrast being on the tube crossing London in the rush hour on the way home - no one so much as looking at each other.

Well, Lucy is teaching an introduction to space clearing here at Hafotty Gelynen on March 10th and 11th, and I'd like to strongly encourage you to come. Actually, more and more I realise that clearing old stuck energy is needed so badly here, and Lucy teaches a fool-proof and powerful way to do it. I used to clear with drumming, smudging etc, but found learning the full method much more powerful. Cost is £140 including accommodation and food, £100 not staying, concessions available. Please don't let lack of money stop you coming - you could even pay in installments if this helps. For those who have done the intro, she is offering the full professional training in September. If you are interested in this, I'll send you the info. Also, I am available to do private space clearings for homes, offices etc - including 'ghost busting'.
